The Court orders that the motion to dismiss these appeals is GRANTED. These consolidated appeals are DISMISSED based on the serious failure of appellants to pursue the appeals in conformity with the rules, particularly their extended failure to timely file their brief on appeal and their filing of multiple frivolous motions. MCR 7.211(C)(2)(b). In this regard, we assume that it was reasonable for appellants not to file their brief on appeal while their motion to remand was pending. But there was no justification for their failure to file their brief on appeal after the February 3, 2020 order denying their motion to remand. In this regard, appellants had ample time to file their brief on appeal before the suspension of filing deadlines as of March 24, 2020 under Administrative Order 2020-4.

All other pending motions in this appeal are also DISMISSED as moot.
